

OFF THE CHARTS!

710 West Capitol Street • Jackson, Mississippi 39203
601/352-5512

NOVEMBER CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

- seen on television Thanksgiving morning
- what we pour liberally on meat, potatoes, and rice
- a custom that is handed down to many generations
- seen on television Thanksgiving afternoon
- also called the "Horn of Plenty"
- first name Myles, arrived on the Mayflower and was military advisor for Plymouth Colony
- this Native American tribe's leader, Massasoit, met the Pilgrims
- the type of gun that the Pilgrims used.

DOWN

- the red sauce that comes jellied in a can
- religious reformers who traveled to the Americas
- usually made of cornbread crumbs
- English settlers of New England who, in 1621, celebrated the first Thanksgiving with the Native Americans
- contains tryptophan, the amino acid that make us sleepy after the holiday meal
- what we eat for days after the heavy Thanksgiving meal

